

GUNSITE ALLOTMENT TENANCY AGREEMENT – 2017 RENEWAL

Allotment holders are members of the Camberwell and District Allotment Society (“The Society”) and the Gunsite section (“The Section”) and must obey the following rules:

1. Plots may only be used for amateur gardening and not for profit. Plot holders may be required to assist with the maintenance of the whole site.
2. Plots must be maintained in good productive condition in line with
3. Members are bound by the Lease between Dulwich Estate and the Society, a copy of which is kept in the shop. Clause 8, which plot holders should read, limits the size of any structure. Plot holders should consult the Section Committee if there is any possibility that a structure might not be acceptable within the terms of the Lease.
4. Plots may only be allocated by The Field Officer. A refundable deposit of £10 per rod must be paid initially towards the fund to cover any future restoration of the plot.
5. A plot holder can terminate a tenancy at any time by talking to the Field Officer; no refund of rent will be given but the deposit returned if the plot is in a good condition.
6. The Committee may terminate the tenancy of a plot when the rent is in arrears by 28 days or the holder is in breach of the tenancy agreement.
7. The Section Committee shall consider and give a ruling on any dispute, with a right of appeal to the Society’s Committee.
8. Without prejudice to the Public Liability insurance taken out by the Society, the members shall indemnify (repay) the Society and the Section for any loss or damage a member may sustain and against all claims in respect of injury, loss of life or property sustained in consequence of the use of the allotment.
9. An adult must supervise children at all times
